

IN THE LOOP!

This newsletter brings you the latest Playhouse news, developments and offerings. Our final bi-weekly update to help keep you In The Loop.

INDUSTRY UPDATE

As the Playhouse has been fully re-open since July 19th and we now launch our new Autumn season programme this shall be the final In The Loop update. We sincerely hope we have managed to keep you updated during our closure via our bi-weekly newsletter, which contained the latest Industry news, Playhouse developments and online offerings. We have produced a total of 26 In The Loop newsletters with number 27 being our last.

It does feel wonderful to bring closure to this period and look forward to the Autumn programme. All the staff team have developed a better understanding of the level of confidence required by audiences to return to the Playhouse through the July and August programme. We have really listened and responded to our audience feedback which has been extremely positive and useful.

The Autumn programme assumes that everything goes to plan and we hit step 4 on the Government road map, so all the shows on sale from September will be without social distancing and at full capacity. We shall of course keep our COVID-19 secure measures under review and we have introduced pre-show emails a few days ahead of your visit to remind you of the latest guidance and the steps we are taking to keep the building clean and safe.

We don't however have a crystal ball to see into the future and if changes do occur then we shall make change easy for you. Where any performances are not permitted to go ahead because of local or national Government restrictions, customers will be offered to transfer their tickets to a rescheduled date or offered a credit note or full refund.

On behalf of all of the Playhouse team I would like to thank everyone who has supported us during the closure and those who have already returned to enjoy the Summer Open Exhibition in the Gallery, attended a film or a workshop, it is our pleasure to welcome you back.

So this is a final goodbye from In The Loop and we hope to see you in person very soon.

Onwards & Upwards,

Jo Potts
Playhouse Manager

We are very excited to announce our first 'live' exhibition in the Gallery since we had to close our doors at the beginning of the pandemic. Our Summer Open Exhibition will showcase a variety of artists, both professional and amateur working in a mixture of mediums from textile to fine art.

All artists paid a small £10 fee per painting selected for submission with NO COMMISSION due on any sales.

We really look forward to welcoming you back into the Gallery space. Find us on the upper foyer.

Opening times are:

Monday 9am - 3pm

Tuesday - Saturday 9am - 5pm

THIS WEEK'S WATCHLIST

After the popularity of our earlier watchlists here is another selection of great films currently streaming online on Netflix, Amazon Prime, All4 and BBC iPlayer for you to explore over the next two weeks.

This weeks watchlist features Le Week-end.

Jim Broadbent and Lindsay Duncan star in Roger Michell's bittersweet drama about an ageing couple attempting to rekindle their marriage with 48 hours in Paris. From a screenplay by Hanif Kureshi, the film charts our sixty-something near-retirees Meg and Nick as they set out to find the magic of their Honeymoon. Honestly written and impeccably acted, Le Week-end is melancholic comedy at its best – and it features a great turn by Jeff Goldblum too!
